mainstreaming climate change

What is the GCCA?

Enhanced dialogue with developing countries on climate change

- First pillar of the Global Climate Change Alliance (GCCCA)
- Promote a convergence of visions on a post-2012 climate change regime between the EU and partner countries
- Regional conferences, policy dialogues and joint declarations
 - Asia, May 2010
 - Africa, Oct 2010
 - Pacific, March 2011 (e.g. specific dialogue on climate finance and aid effectiveness)
 - Caribbean, March 2011
- National policy dialogue (see pillar 2)

Increased support for climate change

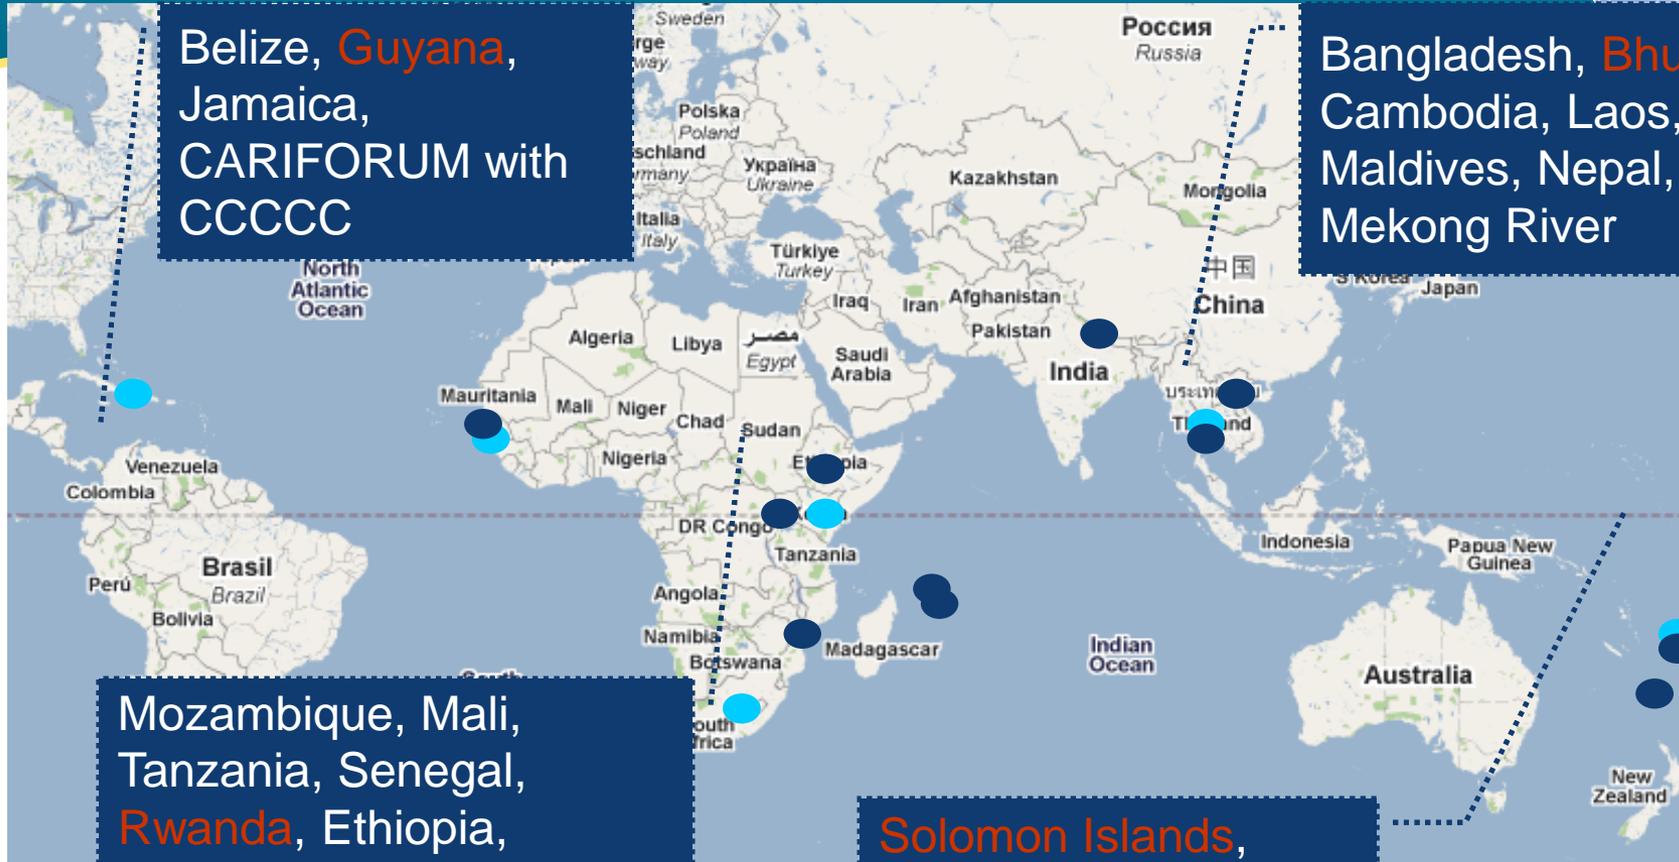

- Second pillar of the GCCA
- € 200 million (2008-2011)
- € 60+ million (2012-2013)
- Promote approaches to integrate climate change into development planning and budgeting
- Focus on integration of climate change in poverty reduction efforts, adaptation in water and agriculture, REDD, CDM and DRR
 - Mainstreaming programmes and workshops
 - Implementation of NAPAs
- Budget support as preferred modality
